

Global and Imperial History Research Seminar

Hilary Term 2023

“Slavery and Abolition”

1st Week: Friday, 20 January

4pm, Colin Matthew Room

Manuel Barcia Paz, University of Leeds

“Abolitionism and the Global Suppression of ‘Piracy’ in the Nineteenth Century”

2nd Week: Friday, 27 January

4pm, Colin Matthew Room

Andrea Major, University of Leeds

“From Anti-Slavery to East India Reform: Trans-Atlantic Abolitionism, British Colonial Philanthropy, and Empire in India, 1838-43”

3rd Week: Friday, 3 February

4pm, Colin Matthew Room

Fabian Klose, University of Cologne

“Enforcing Abolition and the Emergence of Humanitarian Intervention in the Nineteenth Century”

4th Week: Friday, 10 February

4pm, Colin Matthew Room

Anne Ruderman, LSE

“The Local and the Coastal: How Slave-Ship Outfitters Understood Atlantic Africa”

5th Week: Friday, 17 February

4pm, Colin Matthew Room

Matthew Smith, Director, Centre for the Study of the Legacies of British Slavery, UCL

“New World Royalists: Slavery and Inheritance in Plantation Jamaica”

6th Week: Friday, 24 February

4pm, Colin Matthew Room

Danielle Terrazas Williams, University of Leeds

“Manifesting Colonial Collectivities: Black Women and Trauma in Mid-Colonial Mexico”

7th Week: Friday, 3 March

History Faculty, Colin Matthew Room

GIH DPhil Presentations

8th Week: Friday, 10 March

History Faculty, Colin Matthew Room

GIH MSt Presentations